In order to process your application as driver/attendant on school transport/Social Work transport contracts, it will be necessary for SPT to view, use and, in some circumstances, share with the relevant councils your personal data, in particular information relating to your criminal convictions and offences. Before SPT is able to view, use and share your personal data, SPT requires your explicit consent. If you do not provide your explicit consent, SPT cannot take forward your application as driver/attendant on school transport/Social Work transport contracts.

Accordingly, you should be aware that by signing and submitting this application form you are providing your explicit consent to SPT to process your personal data including information relating to your criminal convictions and offences in order for you to be considered for a role as driver/attendant on school transport/Social Work transport contracts.

You have a number of rights under data protection law in relation to the data which we process about you. One of these is a subject access right. In effect this means that you have the right to have a copy of the data which we process about you which is held in our computer records and also some data which is held in our manual records. If you want to exercise your right of access or if you have any other data protection queries please contact the Senior Legal Advisor, SPT, Legal & Property Services. 131, St Vincent Street, Glasgow, G2 5JF

DECLARATION

I hereby consent to:

- (a) a decision on my suitability being requested by SPT from any council, under the provisions of the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 (the "Act"); and
- (b) a decision on my suitability being forwarded by the aforesaid council to SPT; and
- (c) photocopies of the PVG Scheme Record (as defined in the Act) relating to me being sent by SPT to any council; and
